MYLAR CONSTRUCTIONS

Winkleman Gallery installation view 2013

Julie Evans, “Mylar Constructions” at Winkleman Gallery, New York, October 24-December 7, 2013

Evans’s “Mylar Constructions” show was impeccably curated, with artworks mounted directly to one wall, mingling its textures with those of the pieces, and beautifully mounted works on paper hung on the other side of the room. Each piece, while seemingly simple at first glance, was a miniature world where it was easy to get lost among the inkblots and dried paint flakes. I really wanted to take one of these home. — AM
